

The Monroe Fire Department and Blackhawk Technical College

Proudly Presents

Chief Dennis Compton

When In Doubt, Lead!

One of the key roles of leadership is to position the people in the organization to be successful. This includes aspects of organizational design; general management; the selection, nurturing, and direction provided to people throughout their careers; providing a conduit to our customers; and tending to our own professional and personal needs.

Chief Dennis Compton is a well-known speaker and the author of several books as well as many articles for various publications. He is also the Co-Editor of the current edition of the ICMA's textbook titled, Managing Fire and Rescue Services. He is a respected advisor to the fire service and homeland security organizations.

Saturday, April 17, 2010

8:30 AM to 4:00 PM

At The Monroe High School

2600 16th Avenue

Monroe, Wisconsin 53566

$50.00 Per Person (Includes Lunch & Breaks)

For Questions, Contact Deputy Chief Lane Heins
608-329-2575 or 608-426-5007
LHEINS@CITYOFMONROE.ORG

ALL proceeds benefit the continued development and construction of:

